NEWS IN AND ABOUT TOWN

MAGGABEES HOLD BIG CELEBRATION

Northern Indiana Members Attend Meeting Held Here Last Night.

In celebration of the winning of the state banner by Mishawaka for the largest number of new members during the past months between 400 and 500 members of the Maggabees of South Bend and surrounding towns assembled in Reyer hall last night.

Grand camp officers of Indiana, Milo Meredith of Wabash, Ind., great commander, and J. W. Replogle of Goshen, Ind., grand record keeper addressed the assembly at the conclusion of the program. Other state officers, W. P. Turgey, great lieutenant commander, who is in charge of the membership campaign in Indiana, and Hon. R. N. Smith of LaPorte, great counselor of the order, were present, but owing to the lateness of the hour were not asked to speak.

Fully 150 new members from St. Joseph's county received the first degree at last night's meeting. The work was demonstrated by the LaPorte team of 25 men, which is considered to be among the best initiating teams in the state if not in the country.

Representations were entertained from Goshen, Niles, Buchanan, Walkerton, New Carlisle and Oscoda, but the majority of the Maggabees present swore allegiance to hives 1 and 1105 of South Bend and 12 of Mishawaka.

PIONEER RESIDENT DIES HERE FRIDAY

John M. Buczkowski, 75 Years Old, Former European Soldier, Passes Away.

John M. Buczkowski, 118 N. Carlisle st., died Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the age of 75 years. He was born in May, 1841, in Psen county, Poland, the territory after the partition of Poland occupied by Germany.

In 1861, during the Polish rebellion in Russia, he was a young lad of 22, took an active part in the rebellion to such an extent that the German government had offered a reward for information leading to his whereabouts; so he left for this country in February of 1864, coming to Trenton, Mich., in April of the same year where he remained until March of 1866, when he came to South Bend. He remained here until his death.

Surviving are his wife, Eva Buczkowski, three sons, Jacob M. Buczkowski, Martin S. Buczkowski and John S. Buczkowski of this city, and a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Prošina of Chicago, and several grandchildren. He was married in 1864 just before he left Europe for America. Since the spring of 1912, he has been ill, however, not continuously confined to his bed, but since December 23, 1915, he has been continuously to the day of his death confined to his bed.

The funeral which will be private will be held Monday morning at 8:30 from St. Stanislaus, B. M. church, Rev. Roman Marciniak, C. S. C., officiating. Burial will be in the St. Joseph Polish Roman Catholic cemetery.
